How to add a Librarian to your course site in Isaak-Sakai version 11

- Have you created a course site for the Fall 2017 term? If so, you may have noticed that the “Add your liaison librarian” prompt has disappeared from the latest version of Sakai.
- Don’t Fret! You can still add me as a participant by following these instructions (courtesy of the Centre for Pedagogical Innovation) using lowry as my Brock e-mail prefix.

How do I add a TA, Librarian or other instructor?

- You can add a TA or other instructor by going to the "Site Info" item on the left menu, then find "Add Participants" at the top.

- You will then be asked to enter the TA's user CAMPUS ID (AKA Badger ID or Brock E-Mail prefix) and press "Continue", check off "Teaching Assistant" or "Instructor" and press "Continue", choose if you want to notify the person you're adding by E-Mail and press "Continue". The addition will then be saved and you can press "Finish".

- More information and a video can be found in the article: Add Participants.

Participant Roles at Brock University

- Audit - Non-student, will not receive a grade.
- Instructor - Can read, revise, delete and add both content and participants to a site.
- Liaison Librarian - Limited role which can be upgraded as needed. When a Liaison Librarian is added by request this is the role they will initially have.
- Organizer - Allows for differentiation from the TA or Instructor role
- Student - Can read content, and add content to a site where appropriate.
- Teaching Assistant - Can read, add, and revise most content in their sections.

Not all site have all six roles. Please contact the CPI if you need any of these roles add to your site.

2016 Census of Population data is published across a variety of formats as data products and analytical products:

- Census Profiles: data by level of geography
- Highlight Tables: key indicators by level of geography
- Focus on Geography Series
- Census Datasets (in HTML, Beyond 20/20 or XML formats)

All of the 2016 Census geography products have been released and include thematic maps; reference maps; spatial information products such as road network files and boundary files; and attribute information products such as GeoSuite.

Statistics Canada has already initiated an extensive consultation program in advance of the 2021 Census of Population. If you are a Census data user, you may wish to participate by visiting: http://www12.statcan.gc.ca/census-recensement/2021/consultation/index-eng.cfm
What is Business Expert Press?

“Business Expert Press was founded on the proposition that executives and business students need reliable, concise information and guidance from experts across the field of business. Professors from around the world typically focus on writing journal articles, lengthy monographs, textbooks and topical articles for magazines. Business Expert Press combines and summarizes these published works to help students improve their understanding of theories and gain more in-depth knowledge of a particular topic.”

Brock University Library’s database trial includes access to the Business Expert Press Books, and the Expert Insights Articles via the iGLibrary platform. Trial URL

This Trial is available until November 10, 2017. Please send your feedback regarding this trial to llowry@brocku.ca

New Titles Published to Oxford Scholarship Online

Did you know that over 65 titles related to Business, Management, Economics, & Finance have been added to Oxford Scholarship Online so far in 2017? Here are just a few of these titles:

Leading Professionals: Power, Politics, and Prima Donnas by Laura Empson
This book analyses the complex power dynamics and interpersonal politics that lie at the heart of leadership in professional organizations, such as accounting, law, and consulting firms, investment banks, hospitals, and universities. It is based on scholarly research into many of the world’s leading professional organizations across a range of sectors, including interviews with over 500 senior professionals in sixteen countries.

The Architecture of Illegal Markets: Towards an Economic Sociology of Illegality in the Economy by Jens Beckert and Matías Dewey
From illegal drugs, stolen artwork, and forged trademarks, to fraud on financial markets—the phenomenon of illegality in market exchanges is pervasive. Illegal markets have great economic significance, have relevant social and political consequences, and shape economic and political structures.

Skillful Performance: Enacting Capabilities, Knowledge, Competence, and Expertise in Organizations by Jörgen Sandberg, Linda Rouleau, Ann Langley, and Haridimos Tsoukas
This process-oriented book brings together scholars from different backgrounds, traditions, and disciplines who conceptualize capabilities, knowledge, competence, and expertise, not as an entity with specific properties, but as performative accomplishments.
Blind Date With A Database: Meet Current Contents Connect

Did you know that you can easily browse the top journals in your discipline in one place? You can in Current Contents Connect, which is part of our Web of Science Core Collection database.

- Current Contents Connect includes complete tables of contents and bibliographic information from the world’s leading scholarly journals and books and relevant, evaluated web sites and documents.
- You can browse by journal title, or by Current Contents Edition. Article information is cross-referenced to Web of Science and Journal Citation Reports, and links to full text articles using our Get It! linking service.
- If a source is indexed in Web of Science Core Collection (Science Citation Index, Social Science Citation Index, etc.) it is most likely included in Current Contents Connect.
