Critical Library Instruction: A Reading List

This bibliography identifies core readings on current theories and foundations of critical information literacy, with a focus on applying critical theory to teaching and instruction in academic library settings.

