Spotlight on the Best Business Books of 2018

Winner of the 2018 FT/McKinsey Business Book of the Year Award

“The full inside story of the breathtaking rise and shocking collapse of Theranos, the multibillion-dollar biotech startup, by the prize-winning journalist who first broke the story and pursued it to the end, despite pressure from its charismatic CEO and threats by her lawyers”.

Give people money : how a universal basic income would end poverty, revolutionize work, and remake the world / Annie Lowrey. New York : Crown, [2018] Call No: HC 79 I5 L69 2018

Shortlist 2018 FT/McKinsey Business Book of the Year

“In this sparkling and provocative book, economics writer Annie Lowrey looks at the global UBI movement… She also examines at the challenges the movement faces: contradictory aims, uncomfortable costs, and most powerfully, the entrenched belief that no one should get something for nothing”— Penguin

Shortlist 2018 FT/McKinsey Business Book of the Year

“India is now the world’s fastest-growing economy. It is about to become the third-largest economy — at least in terms of purchasing power dollars if not yet real ones. Foreign investors are rushing in. In The Billionaire Raj, James Crabtree has written a compelling guide to what awaits them”.

Shortlist 2018 FT/McKinsey Business Book of the Year

“We need to change course, Mazzucato insists, in this challenging and stimulating book… We need to re-think the relationship between markets and governments; make a clear distinction between creators of wealth and those who merely extract it; embrace bolder collective ambitions…; and spend on the future, instead of embracing a sterile and counterproductive austerity”.

New power : how power works in our hyperconnected world --and how to make it work for you / Jeremy Heimans & Henry Timms. New York : Doubleday, [2018]. Call No: HM 851 H435 2018

Shortlist 2018 FT/McKinsey Business Book of the Year

“The authors are likely to find an eager readership for their book — including both those at the top of the tree, anxious to keep their perch, and the activists and upstarts at the bottom trying to shake them out of it”.

Have a great Winter Term!

- Does your course involve Library Research?
- Is there a topic that is tricky to research?
- I can create a course-specific or topic-specific online Library Research Guide.
- Please contact me with your suggestions.

Just a friendly reminder...

- Please add me to your Sakai course sites. Not sure how? Review the Add Participants article & video on CPI's Isaak/Sakai wiki.
- Are you reusing one of my Library presentations? If so, please let me know so I can update it for you, as subscriptions & links change frequently.
- Have you spotted a broken link or other incorrect data on a research guide? Please let me know so that I can fix it!
- Let Library Reserves staff help you with your course readings. Send them your syllabus. They will review your course readings and ensure they are copyright compliant; provide persistent links to digital materials so they are accessible via SAKAI and off-campus; arrange for scanning of material for uploading to SAKAI. Contact reserve@brocku.ca.
- Please Note: it can take 10-15 days to process course readings during busy times.

Database Blind Date: Meet IEEE Xplore

- The IEEE Xplore Digital Library database is published by the IEEE and provides web access to more than four million full text journal and magazine articles, conference proceedings, and standards related to electrical engineering, computer science, and electronics from the IEEE, the IET, and other publishing partners.

- Please note: our subscription does not include the Wiley ebooks or IEEE online courses. However, we already have many of their books in our Library collection.
